CONCILIATION COURT PROCEDURES

- Failure to Appear: Failure of defendant to appear at the hearing may result in a default judgment being entered for the plaintiff. Failure of the plaintiff to appear may result in dismissal of the action or a default judgment being entered in favor of the defendant on any counterclaim that has been asserted.
- Questions: Visit www.mncourts.gov/district/4/?page=395 for answers to common questions about filing a claim in Hennepin County Conciliation Court. To learn how to represent yourself in a Conciliation Court case, visit www.mnmcourts.gov/selfhelp. All correspondence should be addressed to the Conciliation Court.
- Continuances: The court administrator may change the date for trial if there is good cause for a continuance and a request for continuance is made at least five days (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) prior to trial. The court administrator may grant only one continuance per party, the maximum allowed is 30 days. A Judge must determine all other requests for continuance. All parties will be notified by the Court of any new date set for trial. The Court in its discretion may assess costs not to exceed $50.00, either absolute or conditional, to the other party as a condition of granting an order for a continuance of any case.
- Counterclaims: The defendant may, if s/he has a claim against the plaintiff which is within the jurisdiction of the Court, file it with the Court not less than five days (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) before the trial date, upon payment of a filing fee. The Court will then notify the plaintiff of any such claim. Both the claim and counterclaim will be tried at the same time. If the counterclaim exceeds the jurisdiction limit of the Conciliation Court, see Minnesota General Rules of Practice for the District Courts, Rule 510.
- Evidence: Each party should bring to the trial all witnesses and exhibits, including repair bills and estimates, deemed necessary to prove his or her case. Upon request before the trial, the Court will issue subpoenas requiring witnesses to appear. There are additional costs for issuing subpoenas and it is the responsibility of the party requesting the subpoena to have it served on the witness.
- Trials: After hearing the evidence, the Judge will either make a ruling or take the case under advisement for later decision. The parties will be notified by mail of the Judge's decision. If a party changes his or her address, the Court must be notified.
- If the parties agree on a settlement prior to trial, each party who has made a claim or counterclaim shall promptly advise the Court in writing that the claim or counterclaim has been settled and that it may be dismissed. The plaintiff may notify the Court by completing the Notice of Settlement section on the claim form and mailing or bringing it to Conciliation Court.
